THE NATASHAS

Victor
Malarek

With up to two million people globally trafficked into the sex trade every year, the buying and selling of human flesh is organised crime's fastest-growing business.

In The Natashas, Victor Malarek details the tragic lives of individual women and girls ensnared in the most recent wave of this brutal trade. He unearths evidence of training centres in Serbia where teenage girls from the Ukraine, Moldova and Romania are viciously indoctrinated into the world of prostitution. He travels to war-torn countries such as Kosovo and Bosnia where he exposes corruption involving UN peacekeepers, and he uncovers scandalous situations throughout Europe, Israel and North America where the trafficking trade continues to flourish. He also reveals how the internet is a major factor in the growth of trafficking.

Malarek's hard-hitting call to action exposes the pimps, the politicians, the police and the predators caught up in sex trafficking, and demands a unified and international effort to end this appalling abuse of human rights.

'The Natashas is a major breakthrough that exposes the realities of the international sex trade. It is a battle cry to the UK and other governments to stop blaming sending countries and look at their own backyard. I defy you to read this and think that prostitution is a job like any other.'

ABOUT THE AUTHOR	290

Along the grim trafficking trails, I met and spoke with so many dedicated people. In particular, I want to thank Madeleine Rees, Nomi Levenkron, Sigal Rozen, Leah Gruenpeter-Gold, Nissan Ben Ami, Martina Vandenberg, Don Cesare Lo Deserto, Oleksander Mazur and Derek Chappell.

I also encountered many police officers and peacekeepers who work tirelessly to stop the traffic. They are to be commended. However, it is truly unfortunate that their efforts are marred repeatedly by the actions of so many of their corrupt and amoral colleagues.

Last, and most important, my deepest appreciation goes to the many courageous young women who found the strength to share their stories.
